

	Storm hits Wales Strong winds have been causing power cuts and travel problems in Wales. The wind speeds have been fastest on the coast.	Art competition for young people in the UK The winner will see their artwork displayed in the Tate Modern in London!	Rose-Ayling Ellis wins Strictly Come Dancing The actress is the first deaf person to win the show. She and her partner did some of the dance without music, in honour of the deaf community.
Our character is:  Sammi	Might be a bit excited because he likes storms and it's not near where he lives	Might be interested because his dad does art	Might feel happy or inspired at someone from the deaf community winning the competition
 Nav	Might feel worried or anxious because of her dad, or that it might affect her travelling there	Could feel curious about entering and finding out more, but maybe a bit low or worried that she won't be good enough	May feel neutral, and no strong emotions as isn't really interested in the topic
 Rowan	Could be upset and disappointed - will it affect her holiday to Wales?	Might feel excited and enthusiastic to enter!	Likely to be interested because she likes dancing and watching it on TV

Note that these are guide answers only. Pupils may have other valid ideas that are worth exploring.